

DOC1 SOLUTIONS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 31, 2011

CONTACT: James Crane, 303.422.3621

DOC1 SOLUTIONS SELECTED BY THE CHBA FOR THE OUTSTANDING CORPORATE COMMITMENT AWARD

Doc1 recognized as a business leader in promoting diversity in corporate policies and activities.

Denver, December 13, 2010 – Doc1 Solutions, a leader in technology, personnel and process solutions for law firms, corporations and government agencies was selected by the Colorado Hispanic Bar Association's 2010 Outstanding Corporate Commitment Award. This prestigious award is given to companies that have "demonstrated an exceptional commitment to the Hispanic community and that promotes diversity in corporate policies and activities."

President of Doc1 Solutions, Keith Montoya, who will accept the award at the CHBA 2011 Annual Banquet and Membership Meeting, said that "for Doc1 to be recognized by the CHBA is a great honor and very humbling. As a company, or a business leader, it is part of the responsibility that you should create an atmosphere that promotes opportunities for individuals from every background and culture." The CEO of Doc1 Solutions, James Crane, added further that, "at Doc1, we really do try to focus on people and the community we live in. Everyone here recognizes the value and potential of all peoples and we're very pleased that Doc1 can support the Hispanic community here in Colorado."

The Colorado Hispanic Bar Association Annual Banquet will be held on Saturday, January 29, 2010 at the Hyatt Regency Denver, Colorado Convention Center, located at 650 15th St., Denver, Colorado. You can learn more about the work of the Colorado Hispanic Bar Association at www.chba.net.

Photo courtesy of Michael Crump Photography.
www.michaelcrump.com